1) What does this say?

HINT: It's American Sign Language...

2) Math Fun! Really...it's fun

If you buy candy bars, 20 for $10 and you sell the candy bars for $1 each, how many do you need to sell to break-even?

Hint: If you "break-even" you don't make any money but you don't lose any either.

3) Riddle

A plumber in Georgia has a brother who is an electrician in Texas but the electrician does not have a brother in Georgia. Why not?
